

LENARDS OF COVENT GARDEN MARKET REPORT

0207 498 0927

SEPTEMBER 2017

NEWS

- Gooseberries and Damsons are over for another year!
- Potato prices have been falling recently. Chipper Choice and Cyprus are a lot cheaper alternative to Lovers for chips.
- The price of large and small oranges have hit an all-time high. This is due to 70% of the S African crop being destroyed by bad weather.
- Only another 2 weeks left of Peaches and Nectarines.
- Still English Runner Beans around, which is surprisingly late for this time of year. Along with Fresh Peas.
- Broad Beans have finished.

AROUND THE GLOBE

From France:

- Green Swiss Chard.
- Globe Artichokes are very good value, and Baby Artichokes are down in price.
- New Crop Quinces.
- Jersulam Artichokes are still rather expensive.
- Wet Walnuts to start in a few weeks.

There are American and Canadian Cherries around but be aware they are expensive.

To start from Italy in a couple of weeks –

Cima De Rappa,
Chicoria
Punterella.

ENGLISH PRODUCE

English Berries are around until the end of September, after that they will be coming from further afield.

We have moved onto English Apples and currently there are: Early Windsor, or Worcester. These are in replacement of Braeburn.

Coming soon will be Spartans and Russets.

English Cobnuts have started.

English Corn Cob in Husk.

English Rainbow chard is available.

Unfortunately English Cherries are over for another year.

Beetroots – Large, Regular, Candy and Golden. Also available on the bunch and they are golf ball size.
